

MOUNT PROSPECT PUBLIC LIBRARY SOLICITATION AND DISTRIBUTION POLICY FOR THE PUBLIC

Library visitors and members of the public are prohibited from engaging in solicitation including gathering of signatures on petitions or distribution of literature on library property, except for the display and posting of written materials in accordance with applicable library policies. Individuals may stand on the public sidewalk and engage in solicitation and/or distribution of literature as long as they comply with applicable laws and ordinances and do not disrupt library operations or impede people from entering or leaving the Library.

“Solicitation” refers to oral persuasion to secure an individual’s agreement to join or support an endeavor, cause, group, organization, event, candidate or ballot initiative, or to purchase a product or service.

“Distribution of literature” refers to the dissemination or posting of flyers, brochures, and other written materials promoting a product, service, cause, group, organization, event, candidate, or ballot initiative.
