

MOUNT PROSPECT PUBLIC LIBRARY MEETING ROOM POLICY

Policy

Purpose: To provide inexpensive meeting room space for Mount Prospect not-for-profit groups or businesses and for informational programs of community wide interest.

Mount Prospect Public Library affirms Article VI of the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights: "Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use."

The priority use of the meeting rooms of the Mount Prospect Public Library will be for library related activities and functions. Rooms may also be rented for civic, cultural, educational, and public information meetings of not-for-profit groups or businesses based in Mount Prospect.

Permission to use the meeting rooms does not imply endorsement of any organization using the room nor any goods or services, makes no representation as to the accuracy of the information, and assumes no liability for the quality or safety of any goods or services which may be the subject of such meetings.

Guidelines:

A. Reservations and Fees

Rooms are available Monday – Friday 9:00 a.m. – 9:30 p.m., Saturday 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Sunday 12:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

- 1) All meetings shall be held during stated available hours. Exceptions may be made solely at the discretion of the Executive Director. If room is unoccupied it may be opened 15 minutes prior to the scheduled meeting time.
- 2) Fees will be charged on a per hour basis for the room with a one hour minimum. One-half hourly rate will be charged for final half hour. All attendees must exit building by closing time. Refunds will not be given for space/time booked and not used. Payment must be received at the time of request. Governmental department or agencies serving Mount Prospect residents will not be charged room rental fees.
- 3) Reservations will be taken for Meeting Rooms A and B beginning in November for the upcoming calendar year. Reservations must be made seven (7) days in advance of date desired. Meeting rooms may not be scheduled more than one year in advance. Only one room may be scheduled during a month by the same group.
- 4) The Library reserves the right to change or cancel meeting room reservations. All cancellations must be made 24 hours prior to date of reservation. Failure to do so may result in loss of future meeting room use. Any changes in meeting room set up must be made seven (7) days before the rental date.
