News and Information From Mount Prospect Public Library

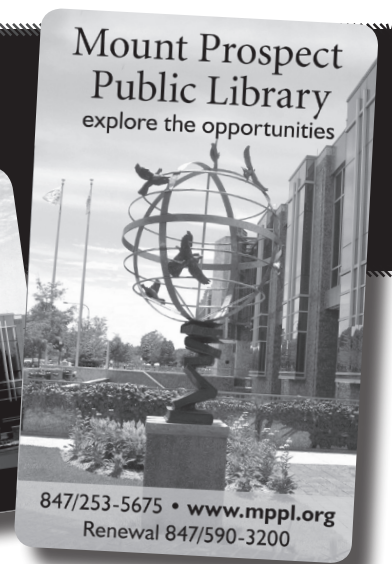

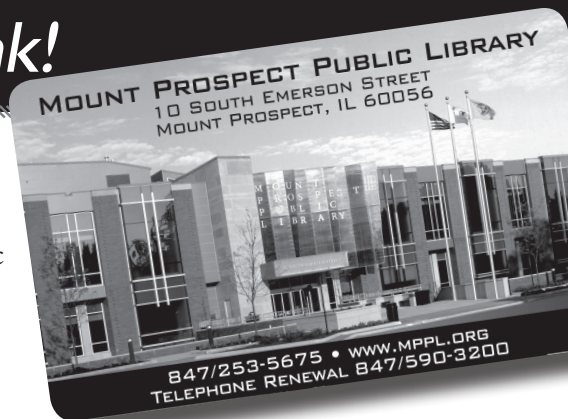

September/October 2012

Show Your Card It's Worth More Than You Think!

SEPTEMBER 1-30

Your Mount Prospect Public Library card just got more valuable. Besides giving you access to everything the Library has to offer, your card can help you save money. During the month of September, show your MPPL card at participating businesses and receive a discount or gift. A list of participating businesses will be available at the public services desks on September 1.

Still don't have a Library card? Then now's the time to stop in and apply for one; they are free to Village residents.

ANNUAL CULTURAL SERIES

begins in October

• SEE PAGE 3 FOR A LIST OF EVENTS •

Alpine Trio: Germany, Austria, and Switzerland

Often known as a place to ski with the rich and famous in the winter or hike the edelweiss-covered elevations in the summer, the Alps are also home to much history and culture. From medieval trading centers that still flourish as gracious tourist towns to an imperial city that once hosted some of music's supreme composers, the Alpine region, encompassing Germany, Austria, and Switzerland, may surprise you with its architecture, its folklore, and, of course, its food. Our annual series highlights the cultures of the various and diverse regions of the world. These activities are funded through the generosity of the Elizabeth J. Clough Memorial Fund.

BARBARA RINELLA PORTRAYS Catherine THE GREAT

Monday, October 1, 1 p.m.

Have you ever wondered why there is only one woman in Russian history to be labeled "The Great"? Barbara Rinella will dramatize Robert Massie's fabulous biography Catherine the Great: Portrait of a Woman. Her performance will explain how a bewildered little German girl, initially ignored because her mother wanted a son, evolves into the most powerful Empress in Russian history. Rinella will become Catherine as she tells the story of her painful marriage to dull and disappointing Peter, the necessity of producing an heir, and Catherine's creativity and brilliance as she charmed, used, and loved other men.

Rinella's performance is a fundraiser for the MPPL Foundation, which sponsors Library programming and special events. Tickets are $18 and must be purchased in person at the Registration Desk by 5 p.m. Sunday, September 30. Payment must accompany registration. No tickets will be available at the door on the day of the performance.

YEARS OF LIBERATING
LITERATURE
1982-2012

BANNED BOOKS WEEK

September 28-October 5

Every year hundreds of requests are made to remove books from the shelves of libraries because someone does not like the opinions expressed. Intellectual freedom—the freedom to access information and express ideas, even if the information and ideas might be considered unorthodox or unpopular—is one of America's founding principles. Protect your right to make your own choices and check out a book someone else doesn't think you should read.

Are You Registered to Vote?

Eligible voters can register to vote at the Registration Desk whenever the Library is open.

Mrs. Elizabeth

Todd Edwards, the sister of Mary Todd Lincoln. Mrs. Edwards talks honestly about her younger sister, stressing Mary's good points while acknowledging her faults, and answers questions from the audience. (R)

Learning About Our German Ancestors

Tuesday, October 16, 1:30 p.m.

A large percentage of Americans can claim German ancestry. But how does one go about finding out more about these ancestors? Teresa Steinkamp McMillin, a professional genealogist and owner of Lind Street Research, will offer some background and guidelines for German family history research. McMillin will discuss the history of Germanic areas, migration trends, the Americanization of names, and tips on using American sources to find an ancestor's town of origin. Join us and learn how to discover the richness of our German ancestors' lives.

The highlight of this presentation will be an authentic Kaffeeeklatsch with typical German desserts such as the mysterious, yet delectable, Bienenstich. There is a $4 nonrefundable tasting fee due at registration, and space is limited. Please sign up at the Registration Desk (no phone or online registrations). ### Food for Thought

Unbroken: A World War II Story of Survival, Resilience, and Redemption
by Laura Hillenbrand
Wednesday, September 5,
1 p.m.

The author of Seabiscuit chronicles the ordeal of an Olympic runner turned World War II airman whose bomber crashed in the South Pacific. Captured by the Japanese and driven to the limits of endurance, Lt. Louis Zamperini would answer desperation with ingenuity, and suffering with hope, resolve, and humor.

Death Comes for the Archbishop
by Willa Cather
Wednesday, October 3,
1 p.m.

In 1851 French Bishop Latour is dispatched to New Mexico to reawaken its slumbering Catholicism. Moving along the endless prairies, he spreads his faith the only way he knows—gently, although he must contend with the unforgiving landscape, derelict and sometimes openly rebellious priests, and his own loneliness.

Coffee, Books, & More

The Greater Journey: Americans in Paris
by David McCullough
Wednesday, September 19,
10 a.m.

After risking the hazardous journey across the Atlantic, Americans of high aspiration embarked on a greater journey in Paris in the nineteenth century. These artists, writers, doctors, politicians, and architects fell in love with the City of Light and its people, and they changed America as a result of what they experienced.

The Last Town on Earth
by Thomas Mullen
Wednesday, October 17,
10 a.m.

Deep in the forests of the Pacific Northwest, a mill town called Commonwealth votes to quarantine itself in the wake of the 1918 flu pandemic, but a violent confrontation with a tired, hungry, and cold soldier will have devastating repercussions for the entire town.

Coffee & Conversation

Coffee & Conversation, MPPL's monthly current events discussion group, provides an open, nonpartisan forum for community members to share their views. This moderated discussion strives to encourage greater understanding of diverse viewpoints and offers a venue where people can participate in honest discussion. The evening's coffee is generously provided by Starbucks Coffee, Mount Prospect. (R)

Homeschool Connection

• FOR PARENTS AND CHILDREN

Wednesday, September 5, 10-11:30 a.m.

Whether you're already homeschooling or just thinking about it, drop by to network with other homeschooling families. Learn about our valuable services and resources that can assist you with projects, research, and more, as well as programs to enhance or supplement your curriculum. (NR)

Mad Scientists Club

• FOR 3RD-5TH GRADERS

Wednesday, September 12, 4:30-6 p.m.

Mad about science? Join us for top-secret, espionage-related science experiments and even make a spy gadget to take home. Space in the lab is limited to 24 Mount Prospect junior science spies, so register today! (R)

Wii Play Video Games

• FOR 3RD-6TH GRADERS

Sunday, September 23, 1-2:30 p.m. or 3-4:30 p.m.

Get ready for some fierce competition with loads of racing, sports, and mini-game challenges. All games are rated E for everyone. (R)

LEGOMania: Bridge Building

• FOR 2ND-4TH GRADERS

Sunday, September 30, 1-2 p.m.

Budding engineers, this is your program! Your mission will be to build a LEGO bridge that can withstand weight! Join us for an hour filled with books, LEGOs (provided by the Library), fun, and a little bit of friendly competition. Priority registration will be given to Mount Prospect cardholders. (R)

SUPER Saturday!

—for all ages

Pocket Circus

Saturday, September 15, 11-11:45 a.m.

Boys and girls...step right up to see the world's smallest circus! This duo from Argentina will thrill you with humor, magic, acrobatics, juggling, and Tango music. Performed mainly in English with a splash of Spanish, Pocket Circus may not have a big top, but they do have plenty of heart and soul! Sponsored by Mount Prospect Public Library Foundation in celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month. (R)

Click & Create: Computer Animation for Kids

Wednesday, October 17, 4:30-5:30 p.m.

• FOR 4TH-6TH GRADERS

Want to create simple animations, computer games, and music videos—or almost anything else you can imagine? We'll teach you the basics and then you get to design your own masterpiece. This program is reserved for Mount Prospect Public Library cardholders. (R)

Chess for All Ages

Sunday, October 14, 2-4 p.m.

Come for a special afternoon of open play chess. You supply the moves; we'll supply the chessboards. While a basic knowledge of the game is required, all ages and skill levels are invited. Children under age 9 must be accompanied by a responsible caregiver. (R)

Chat & Chew

—for 4th-6th graders

Book Crossing

—Two Books, One Discussion
Monday, October 8, 1-2 p.m.

Chew on some good food while chatting about two great books: The Invention of Hugo Cabret and The Boy Who Ate Stars. Come and talk about these books—kids in France will also be reading the same books! Wonder if they like (or dislike) the same things we do? Books are available at the Youth Services Desk. (R)

The Brothers Grimm

Saturday, October 6, 11-11:45 a.m.

The Brothers Grimm of Arranmore Center for the Arts act out four beloved fairy tales by Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm: Cinderella, Rumpelstiltskin, The Brave Little Tailor, and The Bremen Town Musicians. But don't expect the stories to be exactly as you remember! This program is sponsored by the Clough Fund as part of the Library's Annual Cultural Series.

Storytime Favorites at the French Farmers' Market

Sunday, September 9, 10-10:30 a.m.

Join us for a storytime featuring Duck! Rabbit! by Amy Krouse Rosenthal and The Travels of Babar by Jean de Brunhoff, plus favorite songs and rhymes. This storytime is best suited for children ages 7 and younger, but all are welcome. All children must be accompanied by an adult. (NR)

Game On! Wii and Xbox 360

Saturday, September 15, 2-4 p.m.

A big screen and a Wii or Xbox 360 gaming system, what could be better? School's been in session for almost a month and now it is time to blow off steam. Stop in for an afternoon of video games, snacks, and friendly challenges. All games are rated T for teens or E for everyone. (R)

creepy crafts and creative candy

Sunday, October 28, 2-4 p.m.

Bring your old (clean!) socks and give them new life as a scary creature just in time for Halloween. You'll also learn how to decorate your candy treats to show off your creativity. There will be plenty of candy for your crafts—and more to eat as well! (R)

IT CAME FROM THE LIBRARY!

Get started by discussing The Rules of Survival and discover what else lurks at the Library!

Seventeen-year-old Matthew and his two younger sisters live a life of unpredictable abuse at the hands of their mentally unstable mother. Written as a letter to his sister Emmy, this novel tells the gut-wrenching, yet hopeful, story of an older brother struggling to protect those he loves.

The discussion is also a part of Book Crossing, MPPL's transcontinental

Teen Knitting/Crocheting Club

Friday, September 28, 4-6 p.m.

Friday, October 26, 4-6 p.m.

Are you an expert with knitting or crochet needles, just learning, or want to learn? Then come to MPPL's first Teen Knitting/Crocheting club meeting. We have yarn, needles, and the know-how to teach the basics of knitting and crocheting. You can also bring your own supplies—and your friends—for an afternoon of sharing ideas and conversation. Refreshments will be served. (R)

Teen Read Week BOOK DISCUSSION

Monday, October 15, 4-5 p.m.

book discussion with our Sister City in Sèvres, France. Copies of the book are available at the Fiction/AV/Teen Desk.

ACT Practice Test and Test Strategies 101 Workshop: A Two-part Program

Saturday, October 27, 2-4 p.m.

Saturday, November 3, 11 a.m.-noon

For the first session, students will take a practice ACT test, proctored by Kaplan Test Prep and Admissions, and experience what to expect in a test-like environment. Students will receive a comprehensive analysis of their performance on the test, detailing individual strengths and weaknesses. Be sure to bring a calculator, two #2 pencils, and wear comfortable clothes.

Cell phones will not be allowed. In the second workshop, both parents and students are invited to learn how to score higher on the ACT test. The format and content of the test are explored, including ways to take advantage of the test format to maximize efficiency on the exam. This is an ideal follow-up to the practice test. You can register one time for both programs. Seating is limited. (R)

You!

CAN HELP DECIDE WHAT THE LIBRARY OFFERS TEENS —

Join the Teen Advisory Board (TAB, for short). Come to a meeting to see what it is all about. Work with our teen librarians to:

- ✕ help plan and volunteer at teen events
- ✕ discuss books, movies, music, and even video games
- ✕ post on the website and blog

We meet once a month for an hour, and snacks are always served. It's a chance to have an impact on what's available at the Library for teens and earn volunteer service hours (always good for college applications). (NR)

Library Mourns Loss of Leader

George Luteri, president of the Friends of Mount Prospect Public Library, passed away on July 11 after a serious illness. For more than two decades, George's leadership resulted in thousands of dollars being raised by the Friends to sponsor countless Library programs, services, and improvements. In 2011 alone, the Friends raised more than $40,000 due in large part to George's boundless spirit and tireless efforts in organizing the group's four annual book sales.

His passion for books and learning were matched only by his dedication and commitment to community service. George was a friend indeed; he will be greatly missed.
