Fall 2011

FALL BOOK SALE

With the weather finally turning mild and the trees turning colors it is time for the Friends big Fall Book Sale on October 14th, 15th & 16th. Continuing with tradition, this will be a three room sale.

The Everything is 25¢ Sale will be in the big Meeting Room A. In addition to the 25¢ paperbacks there will be a large selection of video tapes, audio books on tape, records, cassettes, magazines, teacher materials and lots of kid's books.

Individually priced better books will be in the small Meeting Room B, where we will offer an excellent assortment of newer and better books. This includes lots of children's better books, several trays of audio books on CD, many music CDs, and full length movies on DVD.

Regularly priced books will be down stairs in the Friends Sale Room. There you will find a carefully sorted selection of tens of thousands of hard bound and paperback books priced at $1.00 or 50¢. As before there are lots of nice kid's books and a selection of teacher materials. We also continue to have a good selection of Large Print books.

There will be bargains and treasures to be found in all three rooms. Stop by and see what you can find.

CHILDREN'S BOOK SALE

Donations of children's books continue to be especially generous. Not only will there be an outstanding selection of children's better books, regular books and 25¢ books at the October sale, we have scheduled a repeat of last year's successful Children's & Christmas Book Sale on Saturday December 10th in the small Meeting Room B from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm. Be sure to drop by and pick up some great holiday gifts.

BOOK SALE

Earthquakes, tornados and floods – Northern Illinois had more than its share of extreme occurrences this summer, The Mount Prospect Public Library didn't escape unscathed. With over 10 inches of rain in the early hours of July 23rd, storm water washed over the bank on Route 83 and into the parking garage and eventually into the Library. The Friends room wound up with 3-4 inches of storm water on the floor. The Library was closed for two days while maintenance staff pumped out the water and disposed of everything that got wet. Tom Garvin and his staff did a super job of saving undamaged materials and cleaning everything. After ten days of fans and dehumidifiers the Friends walked into a sparkling clean room and were back in business. The publicity the Library received – we even made the Chicago TV news -- alerted the public to our losses. With in a few weeks we received so many really nice donations that we were able to replace what was lost and then some.

The July sale raised $10,044. Approximately two-thirds of those materials were sitting on the floor in boxes the week before the flood. Luckily it did not rain a week earlier. Thanks to everyone that put in many volunteer hours cashiering, sorting and schlepping boxes to bring it all together.

EVENTS

The Friends were scheduled to have a table at the 12th Annual Midsummer Downtown Block Party on Saturday July 23rd. Unfortunately, most of the materials we had earmarked for this event were lost in the flood. With many of our volunteers dealing with their own flood problems we decided to take a pass on the event. The Library still had a presence with several staff members manning the Library's table. Sorry if you missed us. We hope to participate again next year.

EVENING BOOK DISCUSSION

The Friends Evening Book Discussion Group finished off the year with three terrific books. In October they usually like to read a spooky story. This year it will be Audrey Niffenegger's Her Fearful Symmetry. In November, another Wisconsin book was chosen: A Reliable Wife by Robert Goolrick. Then some comic relief with the heart warming story of Dewey the Small Town Library Cat by Vickie Myron. The Friends Evening Book Discussion Group meets the third Wednesday of every month at 7:30 pm in Meeting Room B. New friends are always welcome.

HELP WANTED

As always, we could use your help. We need volunteers to set up Thursday evening before the sale and take down Sunday afternoon after the sale. Thursday and Sunday involve moving boxes of books which seem to get a little heavier each year. If there are any younger folks that need volunteer hours for school requirements we can offer a few hours on each day. We could also use a few cashiers. So, if you have a few hours to spare and would like to help a good cause, please give Peter Hicks a call at 847-439-7916 (PDJHicks@Yahoo.com)

We really appreciate all the help and time our dedicated volunteers contributed toward this successful venture. So let's have a great sale and make 2011 another great year.

Dr. George F. Luteri
President
