Summer 2011

SUMMER BOOK SALE

The weather doesn't seem to be able to decide if it is early spring or late summer, but we have definitely decided to have the Friends big Summer Book Sale, rain or shine, hot or cold, on July 15th, 16th & 17th. Continuing with tradition, this will be a two room sale.

Individually priced better books will be in the big Meeting Room A, where we will offer an excellent assortment of newer and better books. This includes lots of children's better books, several boxes of audio books on CD, many music CDs, records (many classical), cassettes and full length movies on video tape and DVD. We will also have many really nice, recently donated cook books and a fairly large donation of Titanic and shipwreck books.

Regularly priced books will be down stairs in the Friends Sale Room. There you will find a carefully sorted selection of tens of thousands of hard bound and paperback books priced at $1.00 or 50¢. We recently received a large donation of fairly new hard bound mysteries and generous donations of Large Print books.

We will also be featuring a fairly large selection of Teacher Materials in both rooms. Where else can you find the teacher's edition of a textbook with all the answers in it?

There will be bargains and treasures to be found in both rooms. Stop by and see what your can find.

BOOK SALE

The April sale raised $8,760. Thanks to everyone that put in many volunteer hours to bring it all together. Special thanks go to Tim Anderson and the youth group at New Covenant Church who helped us move over 200 boxes of books.

UPCOMING EVENTS

The Friends are once again planning to have a table at the 12th Annual Midsummer Downtown Block Party on Saturday July 23rd. We share a space with the Library Foundation. We give out books, trinkets and information about the groups' activities. See you there.

EVENING BOOK DISCUSSION

What are the members of the Friends Evening Book Discussion Group taking to the beach with them this summer? July's selection, The Last Time They Met by Anita Shreve, is a love story told in retrospect. August will find them reading about a Harvard academic's struggle with early-onset Alzheimer's disease in Still Alice by Lisa Genova. And they will read the last Michael Crichton novel called Pirate Latitudes, which is a good summer read for the beach. The Friends Evening Book Discussion Group meets the third Wednesday of every month at 7:30 pm in Meeting Room B. New friends are always welcome.

ANNUAL MEETING and REVIEW

The Friends Annual Meeting was held on Monday April 11th. The annual election of officers was followed by a review of 2010 and the monthly business meeting. George Luteri and Judy Roraff were reelected President and Treasurer respectively. Other members of the Friends Board are: Pat Klawitter – Vice President, Elizabeth Hicks – Secretary with Peter Hicks, Sue Wolf and Barbara Green – Directors at large

HELP WANTED

As always, we could use your help. We need volunteers to set up Thursday evening before the sale and take down Sunday afternoon after the sale. Thursday and Sunday involve moving boxes of books which seem to get a little heavier each year. If there are any younger folks that need volunteer hours for school requirements we can offer a few hours on each day. We could also use a few cashiers. So, if you have a few hours to spare and would like to help a good cause, please give Peter Hicks a call at 847-439-7916 (PDJHicks@Yahoo.com)

We really appreciate all the help and time our dedicated volunteers contributed toward this successful venture. So let's continue making 2011 another great year and have some fun at the same time.

Dr. George F. Luteri
President
